Best 250 shorts from 9,000 short films sent from all over the world,
SSFF & ASIA 2016 Grand Prix "Sing" winning the Best Live Action Short, Short starring Catherine Deneuve (Japan premier), and more are proudly screened!!

Screening lineup of SSFF & ASIA 2017 has been decided! Marking its 19th year, the festival has received over 9,000 short films sent from over 140 countries and regions, and only 250 will be shown at the festival in 8 competitions and thematically categorized 15 special programs.

As only one Academy Awards® accredited short film festival in Japan, we proudly introduce the "Academy Awards® Program" in which SSFF & ASIA 2016 Grand Prix "Sing" winning the Best Live Action Short this year will be screened.

Newly collaborated project "Shibuya Diversity Award" will present an award to a short film which promotes diversity and to spread the basic concept of Shibuya: "turning differences into strengths inclusion".

Screening is free admission.

Opening Ceremony as media conference is held on June 1st (Thu) and each best short award (except some) and grand prix are announced in the Award ceremony on June 11th (Sun).

Best Live Action Short of 89th Academy Awards® (2017)
SSFF & ASIA 2016 Grand Prix "Sing"

Director: Kristof Deak /24:58/ Hungary/Drama/ 2015

Quiet 10-year-old Zsofi has just changed schools. Feeling out of place at first, she is quickly admitted to the school's famous choir and befriends her popular classmate Liza. Soon, they have to stand up united against their choir master, who isn't quite the friendly and inspirational teacher they first thought she was.

Japan Premier ! "4XD" staring Catherine Deneuve and three more French actresses who added color and inspiration to that generation

Director: Philippe Labro/11:23/France/Documentary/1964

In 1964, Philippe Labro had yet to direct any films. UniFrance films nonetheless asked him to film four young actresses- Mireille Darc, Marie Dubois, Catherine Deneuve and Françoise Dorléac- in order to promote these rising talents around the word.

New Project "Shibuya Diversity Award"

"Shibuya--- turning differences into strengths". Shibuya city has collaborated with SSFF & ASIA and will present an award to a short film which promotes diversity and inclusion to spread the basic concept of Shibuya.
